CONCERNING POSTAL SAVINGS BONDS

Information in regard to the Exchange of Postal Savings Deposits for U. S. Bonds.

By applying on or before December 2, 1912, depositors of the postal savings system may exchange the whole or a part of their deposits for United States registered or coupon bonds in denominations of $20, $100, $500, bearing interest from January 1, 1913, at the rate of 2½ per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after one year from the date of issue, both principal and interest payable 20 years from that date in United States gold coin.

Postal savings bonds are exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under state, municipal, or local authority.

Applications for the conversion of deposits into bonds on January 1, 1913, must be received on or before December 2, 1912, by the postmaster at the depository office where the certificates were issued. The postmaster will supply an application form, which must be made out in triplicate. The depositor must inclose and surrender with his application postal savings certificates covering the amount of the bonds desired, for which the postmaster will give him a receipt. The bonds will be issued by the secretary of the treasury, and as soon as they are ready will be delivered to the applicants.

The conversion of deposits into bonds at a date less than one year after the certificates began to bear interest on the deposits as in the case of withdrawal for any other purpose.

Postal savings deposits converted into bonds are not counted as a part of the maximum of $5,000 allowed one depositor, and there is no limitation on the amount of available postal savings bonds which may be acquired finally by a depositor. The exchange is considered as taking effect on January 1, and a depositor who has applied to convert into bonds all or part of the maximum balance of $500 may deposit an additional amount in January, though the bonds may not yet have been delivered.

Postal savings bonds can be procured only by the conversion of postal savings deposits and will not be issued to persons who are not depositors. They may be sold or assigned to any person, however, by the holder and when a registered bond is assigned a new bond will be issued in the name of the owner.

FIRST MEETING OF FELLOWSHIP CLUB

Initial Meeting of Well Known Local Organization Held at Presbyterian Manse.

The first meeting of the Fellowship club for 1912-13 was held at the Presbyterian manse, the home of the president, Rev. M. L. Marshall, last Wednesday evening. Rain had been falling all day, but leaders skied do not deter the members of this splendid organization from attending its meetings regularly and a fair percentage of its members responded to roll call.

The musical part of the program was furnished by Mrs. Claire Harrison and Leland Gorton and consisted of several double numbers on two pianos, which were considered by those present to be unusually good. Prof. A. H. Robertson gave a lecture on the Yellowstone park, illustrating it with stereoscopic views, which was not only entertaining, but of educational value. Mr. Robertson took the views himself while on a tour through the park and tells the story of the beautiful scenery in most interesting language.

The committee in charge were the following gentlemen: Messrs. M. L. Marshall, Leland Gorton, B. F. Chase and Will Welch.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY AT BUSKIRK FARM

Hallowe'en Party Attended by Nearly One Hundred Guests. Novel Entertainment Prepared.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Buskirk very delightfully entertained about 75 of their friends last Thursday evening at the farm. The place resembled a haunted house—so many shades were seen moving about in the dimly lighted rooms. The large packing house was very attractive with rugs and parlor furnishings, and the decorations, suggestive of late October were used throughout.

A spoony corner looked very inviting and served the purpose for which it was designed as the young people were standing in line at the box office. Pumpkin pie, doughnuts, cottage cheese and coffee were served the guests and later they served themselves to popcorn, apples, etc., which were placed in convenient locations in great quantities for their benefit.

A smoker was one of the comfortable things planned upon. A tent and a campfire were to cheer the men while they enjoyed cigars but owing to the rain which had been falling during the day this scheme had to be abandoned.

Mr. and Mrs. Buskirk are splendid entertainers and their friends look forward to the packing house parties with great pleasure.

7,000 TEACHERS IN CONVENTION

Michigan State Teachers' Association at Grand Rapids Largest in History of Organization.

The Michigan State Teachers' association, which was held in Grand Rapids last week, was attended by 7,000 teachers. The first session was called on Thursday afternoon and there were two sessions on Friday. The convention was held in the coliseum, and as large and commodious as it is, it was necessary to hold sectional meetings in various places about the city.

The great body of visitors were entertained splendidly and a complimentary performance of Schumann-Heink, the great prima donna, was one of the treats. The Paw Paw teachers who attended returned Saturday and Sunday nights and were well pleased with the expenditure of time, shouting for Grand Rapids as a host.

WILLIAM SAGE.

William Sage, aged 76 years, died at his home here Tuesday morning, after an illness of some months of heart trouble and dropsy. He was convalescent after his sickness last spring but has been in a very serious condition for the past few weeks.

The funeral was held at St. Mary's church last Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Father Carlson officiating. Burial in the Robinson cemetery near Gebelville.

BRAND NEW CURTAIN.

Talk about new fall and winter scenery—you should take a look at the Idle Hour theater. The brand new curtain presents a nifty appearance with its pretty scene and bright colored drapery. A landscape occupies the center and is surrounded by local ads setting forth the descriptions of the business of the town.

The decoration on the curtain is the work of C. W. and Lynn Reynolds and is a credit to our local men.
